

Although this petition poses no immediate threat to my current isp, sonic.net, i abhor any attempt by larger companies to limit their ability to do business. I feel blessed to have the option to choose a business like Sonic. I've had unfortunate experiences with large broadband providers, both cable and dsl. Sonic.net treats their customers well. They not only attend to problems with individual care, but educate people as they go.